

COMISKEY MUST SELECT MANAGER FOR TEAM

CHICAGO, April 10.—On his return from Cincinnati Monday, Charles A. Comiskey of the Chicago American league team will probably settle the vexed question as to the manager to be selected by the retirement of Fielder Jones.

The fact that "Billy" Sullivan has been in close consultation with Comiskey gave rise to widely circulated rumors that the catcher has been chosen for the berth, but a press release came from the team stating: "There is a deal yet to be put through before I make up my mind," said he.

Isbell and Davis of the infield are prominently mentioned for the position.

HER SPRING SONG

"Who is that?" The speaker stopped her survey of the little apartment she had come to look at in answer to the "To Let" on the front door. The elevator man looked at her for a moment, puzzled, then said: "That's the foreign gentleman pianist right under this apartment, ma'am. He always plays about this time of the day and nearly every evening."

The playing ceased suddenly. The listening woman turned with a smile. "How charming that was! Now, let me see. There's this tiny sitting room, alcove bedroom, small bathroom, and, dearest of all, a kitchenette."

A kitchenette—how delightful! What fun she would have playing at house-keeping! A shadow stole across her face—she remembered suddenly she had no one to keep house for. Jack was "on the road" and would be until the spring.

"How much did you say the rent is?" she asked, turning to the now impatient elevator man.

"Sixty dollars. Will you take the rooms, ma'am? My bell has been ringing and—"

"Sixty!" She held up her finger, for silence. "Just a moment, please."

The man downstairs had a merrily been playing for so long, and, having returned to the sitting room, she could hear the music more distinctly. It was something very sweet and low and soft, and it seemed to end with a long-drawn-out sigh.

"Yes, I'll take the rooms, and I'll move in tomorrow afternoon. Is the house always so quiet?"

They were going down in the elevator and the unusual quiet of the New York apartment house obtruded itself on her hotel-room nerves.

"Yes, ma'am, the house is always quiet. We have some very nice people living here. Then you'll move in tomorrow, ma'am?"

"Ma'am, I'll have it all ready for you. Thank you, ma'am."

That afternoon soon passed—what with her packing to do and her long letter to Jack. She had so much to tell Jack—all about the new flat, a minute description; then came her reasons for leaving the hotel—she was so tired of the continual bustle and noise, everybody coming or going; it was an endless move, move, move.

The next evening found her tired but happy among a lot of boxes, bundles and trunks in her new apartment. She passed a contented half hour in the kitchenette preparing a "bite." It was charming! She was really keeping house, and in the spring she would keep house for Jack!

Her books must be unpacked, and then she would write to Jack. Nearly a week since she had had a letter from Jack. But, then, Chicago was a long way off and Jack must be very busy. The last time a week passed without his writing she was terribly frightened and worried that she would go to him if he were ill. His letter had explained how busy he was—no doubt he was busy now. Tomorrow she would surely get one—tomorrow.

She listened intently—five, ten minutes—oh, if the pianist would only play again! Yes, he was beginning that same little piece he played yesterday when she looked at the rooms. It was something very sweet and low and soft, and it seemed to end with a long-drawn-out sigh.

What did it make her think of? Love? That was it—love and home. It seemed to speak of the spring—the spring, of course, when Jack was coming home.

The weeks passed quickly. Jack wrote—perhaps not as often as she might have, but then he was traveling again.

will play the local high school team. The team will play home games with the Brown, Princeton, University of Pennsylvania and Harvard freshmen. The schedule is as follows: April 12, New Haven high school; April 15, Phillips Exeter at Exeter; April 17, Phillips-Andover at Andover; April 24, Dean academy at New Haven; April 27, Moreborough at New Haven; May 1, Hotchkiss school at Lake Hill; May 4, Williston freshmen at New Haven; May 6, Brown freshmen at New Haven; May 8, Pennsylvania freshmen at New Haven; May 15, Princeton freshmen at Princeton; May 25, Harvard freshmen at New Haven; May 31, St. Mark's at Southborough; June 5, Harvard freshmen at Cambridge.

Lake Has Troubles. COLUMBUS, O., April 10.—The Boston American League players who left here yesterday were the most strict observers of discipline. Jack Thielman refused yesterday to put on a uniform and the team left for the grounds without him. The party has several obstreperous members and the troubles of Manager Fred Lake seem to be gathering.

A TUB OF OATS

Yes, sir—a tub of oats and the brisk use of a curry comb, now and then, will make this horse look like a new animal. As it is, however, you can buy him at a price as pathetic as is his appearance. You will find him in the want ad columns in a few days. Keep your eye out for him.

When you fatten him up a little you can sell him back through the want ad columns again at real good profit—besides having the use of him as long as you wish. It will pay you to watch the want ad columns every day. Try it and see.

MAYOR AND OFFICIAL FAMILY ALL FINED

TOPEKA, Kas., April 10.—The state supreme court today rendered a judgment of ouster against Mayor J. P. Harsha of Hutchinson, against all of the city officials and against the city itself.

The charge against the mayor and other officials was that they permitted violations of the prohibitory law and that "joint" and disorderly houses were given police protection upon payment of a monthly fine.

DIES PENNILESS AFTER MAKING GREAT FORTUNE

RENO, Nev., April 10.—Ernest Escalante, a 41-year-old, single, of age, and widely known throughout the west, died this morning at the county hospital from acute nephritis. A wife and daughter, living in Vancouver, B. C., survive him.

Escalante some years ago was very wealthy, having made an immense fortune in mines and rich placer properties. His last business enterprise was a hotel in Tonopah, which failed for lack of patronage. His career from that time was precarious and he died penniless.

THIRTY INJURED IN TROLLEY CAR COLLISION

KANSAS CITY, April 10.—Thirty people were hurt, some of them seriously, when two crowded trolley cars collided at Sixth street and Quindaro avenue, in Kansas City, Kas., tonight.

The accident was caused by a switch failure, causing one car to turn into another car on a cross street. Passengers in both cars, numbering a hundred, were thrown from their seats and many were trampled in the rush for the doors. Others were cut by flying splinters, many receiving minor injuries. All the injured live in Kansas City.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL TAX.

Notice is hereby given that a special tax for the purpose of extending the sewer has been levied and confirmed by ordinance of the city council approved March 2, 1909, and April 6, 1909, respectively.

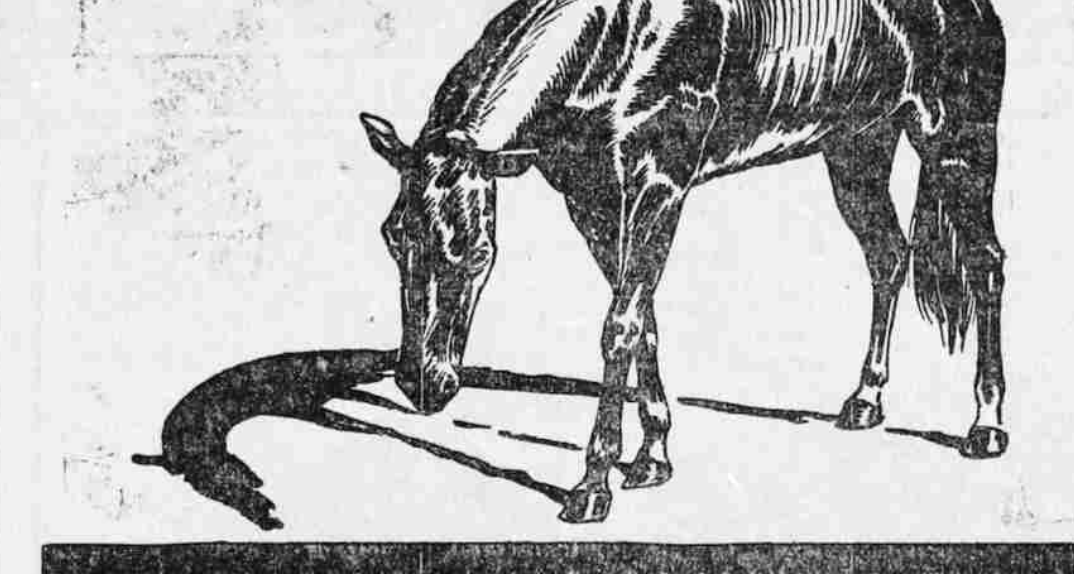

The special tax is levied upon the following described real property in Salt Lake City, to wit: In lots 2, 4, 7 and 8, block 31, plat 4 of Salt Lake City survey, abutting on both sides of Linden avenue, between Seventh and Eighth East streets, in sewer district No. 4, of Salt Lake City, and due and payable in five equal annual installments, beginning April 6, 1910.

Interest at the rate of six (6) per cent per annum from the date of the approval of the ordinance extending the sewer, to wit, the 6th day of April, 1909, until the date of delinquency, and, thereafter, until paid. Provided, that one or more of said installments or the whole of said tax, may be paid on or before ten days after the approval of the ordinance confirming said tax, to wit, the 6th day of April, 1909.

Special taxes are payable at my office, room 102, city and county building, Salt Lake City, Utah, until the 6th day of April, 1909.

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT. Raymond-Illinois Mining company, principal place of business, Salt Lake City, Utah, mines at Eureka, Utah.

Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the directors, duly held March 1, 1909, an assessment of one-half a cent per share on the outstanding capital stock of the corporation payable in five equal annual installments, beginning April 1, 1909, was levied on the outstanding capital stock of the corporation payable in five equal annual installments, beginning April 1, 1909.

A TUB OF OATS

Yes, sir—a tub of oats and the brisk use of a curry comb, now and then, will make this horse look like a new animal. As it is, however, you can buy him at a price as pathetic as is his appearance. You will find him in the want ad columns in a few days. Keep your eye out for him.
